“We at New Forest Opportunities Ltd. became aware of The Pursuit of Excellence via an article ...(that) described the Pursuit as a means of improving workers personal and work-based performance... We added the Pursuit to an intensive Supervisor Workshop in order to enhance participant’s abilities in leadership, motivation, agreement creation and accountability. Our evaluation of the program proved favorable... We would certainly encourage any employer to consider Pursuit of Excellence as a means for capacity - building amongst their supervisors and staff.”

- Jim Cameron, Director of Operations, New Forest Opportunities Ltd.

- Monica Akaka, May 2005
